

Graduate Student Opportunity

POSITION IN GENE REGULATION AND METABOLISM

Applicants should have an active interest in molecular biology and/or metabolic regulation.

FREEZE TOLERANCE & CRYOBIOLOGY

Positions are available in September for studies of natural freezing survival by frogs, insects and snails. Studies include gene discovery (cDNA arrays, RT-PCR), gene regulation by transcription factors, signal transduction via protein kinases and phosphatases, and enzyme kinetics.

Contact: Dr. Ken Storey, F.R.S.C.
Canada Research Chair in Molecular Physiology

Department of Biology
Carleton University, Ottawa K1S 5B6
(613) 520-3678
kenneth_storey@carleton.ca

Check out our papers and apply at:

<http://www.carleton.ca/~kbstorey>

FULL FINANCIAL SUPPORT FOR QUALIFIED APPLICANTS
Internal supplements guaranteed for NSERC/OGS winners.

